A Foodie's Guide to Harrison Hot Springs

Having a good meal is key to having a great vacation. From cafes to bars, Harrison Hot Springs has a variety of options to satisfy all of your cravings.

Visit Morgan's Bistro for dinner and a view. Their menu offers a variety of entrees to satisfy even the pickiest of eaters among any group. The view from the second floor patio is worth waiting for, it is recommended to make a reservation ahead of time.

Suzie's Cafe is known by locals and tourists alike for their hearty and delicious breakfasts. This country-style diner specializes in breakfast foods from pancakes and waffles to eggs and bacon it will get your morning started the right way.

For a hearty and delicious dinner go to the Black Forest Restaurant. This family-run business has offered authentic German cuisine since 1975. The patio offers a great view of the lake.

Located in the centre of Harrison, Munchikone Food Bar is best known for its delicious panini wraps and pizza cones. They also offer fresh salads, chicken strips and popcorn prawns.

Lakefront Café is a family-owned diner that will surprise you with their delicious breakfasts. You will often see the chef/owner taking orders and processing payments. The café is small, it is best to get your food to go and eat on the beach.

Pho Ho is a small Vietnamese restaurant on Lillooet Ave, behind the hotel. Their menu features a large selection of different types of Pho as well as other unique dishes. Quick and friendly service, plus a delicious meal, you can't go wrong here.

Milo's Greek Taverna is located on the beach front and offers the best Greek food around. It is a great place to enjoy a fine meal and glass of wine on the balcony overlooking Harrison Lake.

All of these restaurants are unique to Harrison Hot Springs and will help make your vacation perfect. If none of these appeal to you, make sure to ask our front desk staff for their favourite local places.
